七、阅读短文,完成句子。(10分)

Food is important in our life. What do you know about food?What is for dinner, fried chicken in a fast food restaurant or chicken cooked in Chinese way?It seems hard to choose.

Maybe you like fast food very much, but it's bad for your health. If you have too much deep-fried food, you're more likely to get cancer(癌症).Well, it is not just potato chips that are bad for you. There is other food that you should worry about, like soda(苏打; 碳酸水) and processed food(加工食品).If you have too much of them, you'll get fat.

If you want to be healthy, you have to learn which food is good for you. Scientists divide food into five different types: dairy(奶制品), meat, grains, fruit and vegetables. No one food has them all.

So we should eat less meat, oil, more fruit and vegetables, especially deep-colour(有色) vegetables. Vegetables are rich in Vitamin A, Vitamin C and other nutrients.

1. _____ is important in our life.
- 2.Too much _____ food, such as potato chips, is bad for your health.

3. There are five different types of food: _____, meat, grains, fruit, and vegetables.

4. We should eat less meat, _____, more fruit and vegetables.

5. Vegetables are _____ in Vitamin A, Vitamin C and other nutrients.
