Title: My Midterm Test in the Fourth Grade

Hi everyone! I want to share with you about my midterm test in the fourth grade. It was really challenging, but I tried my best to do well.

The first part of the test was about spelling. We had to spell words like "banana", "chair", and "elephant". They were not too hard, but I had to be careful to get them right.

Then, we had a listening comprehension section. The teacher played a recording and we had to answer questions about it. It was a bit tricky because we had to listen carefully and remember the details.

Next, we had a grammar section. We had to correct sentences like "She goed to the store" and "He is a good drawer". I remembered to use the right tense and form of the verb.

After that, we had a reading comprehension section. We had to read a story and answer questions about it. I read the story carefully and tried to understand it before answering the questions.

Finally, we had a writing section. We had to write a short essay about our favorite season. I chose summer and wrote about the beach, ice cream, and playing outside in the sun.

I worked really hard on the test and I hope I did well. I can't wait to get my results back and see how I did. Wish me luck!

That's all about my midterm test in the fourth grade. Thank you for listening! Bye!

Hello everyone, this is Bob. Today, I'm going to share with you my experience of taking the mid-term test in the fourth grade English class.

The test was really fun because we had learned a lot of interesting things in class. Our teacher, Mrs. Wang, prepared us well for the test by teaching us all the new words and grammar rules. She also gave us practice exercises to help us remember everything.

During the test, we had to write a short essay about our favorite animal. I chose to write about pandas because I think they are really cute and cuddly. I described how pandas look like, what they like to eat, and why I like them so much. It was a lot of fun to write about pandas!

We also had to answer some multiple-choice questions and fill in the blanks with the correct words. I was a little nervous at first, but then I remembered all the things Mrs. Wang had taught us and I felt more confident. I finished the test on time and I think I did pretty well.

After the test, Mrs. Wang praised us for our hard work and effort. She also gave us some tips on how to improve our English skills. I'm really happy that I did well on the test and I can't wait to learn more English in the future.

That's all for now. Bye-bye!

Title: My Dream Vacation

Hi everyone! I'm a 4th-grade student in Lu Xiang Primary School. Today, I want to tell you about my dream vacation. I hope you enjoy reading about it!

First of all, I want to go to Japan. I have always been fascinated by the culture and the food there. I want to try sushi and ramen noodles, and visit the beautiful temples.

Next, I want to visit Paris, the city of love. I want to see the Eiffel Tower and eat delicious pastries. I also want to visit the Louvre Museum and see famous paintings like the Mona Lisa.

After that, I want to go to New York City. I want to see Times Square and Central Park. I also want to visit the Statue of Liberty and take a boat ride around the city.

Lastly, I want to relax on a beautiful tropical island. I want to swim in the clear blue water and build sandcastles on the beach. I also want to try surfing and snorkeling.

I hope my dream vacation comes true one day. Until then, I will continue to work hard in school and study English so I can communicate with people from all over the world.

That's all for now. Thanks for reading about my dream vacation! Bye bye!

Hello everyone! Today is the day of our midterm test for the fourth grade English class. I am so excited to show what I have learned this semester.

First, we had a listening test where we had to listen to a conversation and answer some questions. It was a little bit hard because the people in the conversation were speaking so fast! But I did my best and tried to catch every word they said.

Next, we had a reading test where we had to read a story and answer some questions about it. The story was about a little boy who went on an adventure to find his lost puppy. It was a very interesting story and I really enjoyed reading it.

Then, we had a writing test where we had to write a short paragraph about our favorite season. I chose summer because I love playing at the beach and eating ice cream. I wrote about all the fun things I like to do in the summer and why it is my favorite season.

Overall, I think I did pretty well on the test. I tried my best and that's all that matters. I can't wait to see what my grade will be! Thank you for reading my essay about the midterm test. Bye bye!

Hello everyone! Today I want to share with you my experience of taking the mid-term test in the fourth grade English class.

The test was not very difficult, but there were some tricky questions that made me think really hard. There were multiple-choice questions, fill-in-the-blank questions, and even a short essay question. I tried my best to answer each question carefully and neatly.

For the multiple-choice questions, I read each option carefully before circling the correct answer. Sometimes it was hard to choose between two options, but I trusted my instincts and made my best guess.

The fill-in-the-blank questions were a bit challenging because I had to remember the correct spelling of the words. I wrote down each word slowly and double-checked to make sure it was spelled correctly.

Finally, the essay question asked me to write about my favorite animal and why I liked it. I chose to write about my pet dog because he is always so happy and playful. I wrote about how he greets me at the door every day and how he loves to play fetch in the park.

Overall, I think I did a good job on the test. I hope to get a good grade and make my parents proud. I will keep studying hard and practicing my English skills so that I can continue to improve. Thank you for listening to my story!

Title: My Experience of the Midterm Test in Grade 4

Hi everyone, I'm Lucy from Class 4-1. Today I want to share my experience of the midterm test in Grade 4 with you all. It was so much fun!

First, we had an English test. We had to write a short essay about our favorite animal. I chose to write about pandas because they are cute and fluffy. I also had to answer some questions about prepositions and verbs. It was a bit tricky, but I tried my best.

Next, we had a Math test. We had to solve some addition and subtraction problems. I love Math, so this test was quite easy for me. I finished it quickly and checked my answers twice.

After that, we had a Science test. We had to match animals with their habitats and describe the life cycle of a butterfly. I learned all these things in class, so I was confident in my answers.

Finally, we had a Chinese test. We had to write a short story using some new words we learned in class. I wrote about a magical adventure with my friends. It was so much fun to make up the story!

Overall, the midterm test was a great experience for me. I learned a lot and had fun at the same time. I can't wait to see my results and share them with my friends. I hope I did well! Thank you for listening to my story. Bye-bye!
